

Bass Player Races in NHRA

Scott Hudson, bass player for The Barnburners with Big Harmonica Bob!, is scheduled to compete in the NHRA event Summer Nights of Fire, August 9-11 at the historic Pomona Raceway in Pomona, California. Hudson will be racing on behalf of Relative Racing, based in Yorba Linda, California.

(PRWEB) July 18, 2002 -- The event will feature night racing on Friday and Saturday with final eliminations scheduled for Sunday at the famed quarter-mile. Competitors in eight categories vie for NHRA Lucas Oil Drag Racing Series national and divisional championships, highlighted by 260-mph Top Alcohol Dragsters and Top Alcohol Funny Cars. Competitors in Competition Eliminator, Super Stock, Stock, Super Comp, Super Gas and Super Street, also will compete at the one-time event.

The Pomona Raceway is located at 1101 W. McKinley Avenue, Pomona, CA. 91768
Tel. (909) 623-3111.

Hudson is also scheduled to perform with The Barnburners with Big Harmonica Bob! at a multicultural celebration at the Westchester Bar & Grill in Los Angeles in the evening of August 10th.
