

RacingJunk.com Named the Official Classifieds of Central Texas Speedway

RacingJunk.com announces a new partnership with Central Texas Speedway to act as the Official Classifieds of the asphalt oval track.

North Adams, MA (PRWEB) August 05, 2016 -- RacingJunk.com, the world's largest online motorsports marketplace, is pleased to announce that it has been named the Official Classifieds of Central Texas Speedway. The co-marketing partnership between the two organizations will support greater awareness and attendance of CTS events, while broadening the RacingJunk.com reach to a community of competitors and fans that can benefit from its free services.

RacingJunk.com has dedicated sections for asphalt oval racing and karting that includes race vehicles, engines, parts and accessories. With over 850,000 registered members RacingJunk.com connects to 2 million buyers and sellers every month who view over 30 million pages of race related classifieds.

“Stock car and karting are growing categories on RacingJunk,” said Tony Lund , Director of Business Development for MotorHead Media. “We look forward to helping Central Texas Speedway reach an even wider audience, while providing their competitors and fans some special offers and promotions in addition to our already free classifieds.”

Central Texas Speedway formerly known as Thunder Hill Raceway opened its doors for the first time in 1998, and reopened under new management in 2013. Central Texas Speedway features several classes of cars in extreme side-by-side racing. The track is one of Texas’ best 3/8-mile asphalt oval short tracks and there’s not one bad seat in the house.

“Central Texas Speedway has the perfect audience for MotorHeadMedia. We are excited to partner with such a well established company and look forward to the outcomes,” said Matthew Donovan, President Corporate Partnerships for CTS.
