

Durham School Services Earns Perfect Score on Fleet Inspection

Charleston fleet receives 100%.

Warrenville, IL (PRWEB) August 01, 2016 -- Durham School Services, a leading provider in student transportation, received a perfect score of 100 percent on their recent fleet inspection by the State Transport Police—South Carolina Department of Public Safety.

“We set our standards high in regards to safety which entails continuous improvement. Receiving a perfect score on our recent fleet inspection validates our strenuous dedication to the maintenance of our fleet,” said Daniel J. Gleich, Durham shop manager for Charleston. “We are committed to ensuring our fleet is well maintained to get our students to school safely, on time and ready to learn.”

The inspection performed by State Transport Police encompassed an assessment of 140 school buses to ensure the fleet is well equipped to safely transport the students of 86 schools serviced by Durham School Services in Charleston.

“I have been inspecting your buses since you (Durham) came to Charleston,” said Cpl. Gerald D. Smith, State Transport Police/Special OPS. “I believe inspecting buses is one of the most important inspections that I do. Please continue the good work with the maintenance, and keeping the buses safe for the children that ride in them.”
