Jacksonville, FL (PRWEB) July 15, 2004 -- Chris Fowler of Chris Fowler Racing will make his debut race in a stock car on Saturday, July 17, 2004, at the American Speed Association's National Tour during the BFGoodrich Tires 250 at Madison International Speedway.

Fowler, a native of Jacksonville, Fla., will race alongside Chad Wood of Madison-based Wood Brothers Racing. Fowler will drive the number 42 car.

Fowler's previous racing record includes 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th place finishes in the 2002-03 Skip Barber Formula Dodge Southern Series. Fowler was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis (CF) at six months old, and at age 29, is determined to become a major force in professional racing.

CF is a genetic disease that affects approximately 30,000 people in the United States. A defective gene causes the body to produce abnormally thick, sticky mucus that leads to chronic and life-threatening lung infections and impairs digestion.

Fowler has pledged to donate ten percent of his race winnings to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, headquartered in Bethesda, Md., to support research towards a cure for CF.

"I have waited my entire life for this moment, and to finally have the opportunity to race is amazing. I am so very thankful to my sponsors, supporters and Woods Brothers Racing for making this possible. I am planning for a big finish and look forward to donating money to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation to help find a cure for CF," Fowler said.

The 250 lap race is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. CST at Madison International Speedway, near Madison, Wis.
