

Lindsay Lohan to Star in Herbie the Love Bug Remake

Start your engines! Herbie, that lovable Volkswagen Beetle with a mind of its own, races back to theaters this summer, and this time Lindsay Lohan is going along for the ride. In "Herbie: Fully Loaded," the classic white Bug with a knack for helping couples hook up, veers off into the world of NASCAR racing.

(PRWEB) December 10, 2004 -- Lindsay Lohan stars as Maggie Peyton, the new owner of Number 53, who steers the car through road trials to becoming a NASCAR competitor. Her automobile comrade has some new tricks under the hood as he takes audiences for an action-packed spin in this wild comedy.

Disney's high-speed adventure is a remake of classic films "The Love Bug" and "Herbie Goes Bananas." Lindsay Lohan co-stars with a stellar cast including Michael Keaton, Matt Dillon, Breckin Meyer ("Clueless"), Justin Long (TV's "Ed"), and a guest appearance by NASCAR driver Dale Earnhardt, Jr.

Lohan, who's been acting since the age of 3, has never experienced working with a 4-cylinder co-star as she explains, "It's a little bit awkward because there will be scenes where I'll be talking to the car and I'll be standing there and I'll be thinking to myself, 'I'm talking to a car, I look a little crazy right now.' But it's funny and it's sweet."

Lindsay Lohan is best known for her starring roles in "Confessions of a Teenage Drama Queen" and "Mean Girls," as well as hosting the 2004 MTV Movie Awards.
