

Transport America Raising Pay to An All Time High

“Keeping our drivers satisfied is our number one priority,”

(PRWEB) January 29, 2005 -- At a time when many carriers are raising pay, Transport America is rising above the rest. Company Drivers will soon see an additional $4,500 added to their yearly compensation because when it comes to treating driver’s right, Transport America is always at the top of their game. The company constantly researches industry trends to ensure every incentive offered to Transport America drivers is the best around. Effective February 1, 2005, Transport America is scheduled to raise company driver pay to an all time high.

“Keeping our drivers satisfied is our number one priority,” said Cliff Winston, Support Center Manager. “We will continue to have a compensation package that reflects what our drivers are worth. And they are worth a lot to us.” Over a four-month time period company driver pay will be raised .045 cpm in the form of bonuses and compensation and will be equivalent to company drivers receiving an additional $4,500 per year.

Transport America has not only exceeded expectations through the years, but has become one of the country’s leading providers of transportation and logistics services.
