Tickets can now be purchased online for this inaugural motorcycle festival to be held at the historic Lakewood Exhibition Center/Fairgrounds from July 14-17, 2005, attracting hundreds of thousands of motorcycle aficionados for a Four Day Event.

(PRWEB) February 28, 2005 -- Join fellow motorcycle enthusiasts from across the country as they converge in Atlanta for Atlanta Bike Fest 2005. General Admission tickets are $12.50 per day; or $45 for a four-day festival pass. All four-day-pass buyers will receive a Gift Bag that will include the Official Atlanta Bikefest 2005 T-shirt, commemorative Ride Pin/or Patch, Coupon Book, Grand Prize Entries among other products from our sponsors. Four-day-pass buyers will also benefit from complimentary parking as well as entry and eligibility for all events and competitions (Custom Bike Show, Ms Bike Fest Pageant, Stunt Show/Contest, Nightly Parties and Concerts) excluding the Sunday charity-ride. Tickets may be purchased online in the registration section of the web-site, www.atlantabikefest.com. Group discounts are available, along with picnic space for motorcycle clubs interested in having their own area for cook-outs & camaraderie.

The Atlanta Bike Fest will feature continuous entertainment from motorcycle stunt shows to celebrity volleyball-on-the-beach and nightly parties. Music will constantly be playing on the beach, near the venue's lake, as visitors make their way through more than 200 vendors displaying everything relating to motorcycles. Highlights of the festival, include a stunt show performed by a nationally recognized group; a miss bike fest competition and daily panel discussions. You will also have the chance to enter your bike in the custom bike show.

The Atlanta Bikefest Committee, is comprised of motorcycle riders, motorcycle clubs, event planners, community leaders, media personalities and celebrities. Atlanta Bike Fest, LLC is an AMA sanctioned promoter.
