Hmiel and Billy Ballew Motorsports Ready to Take on Martinsville

Shane Hmiel and Billy Ballew Motorsports will team up once again this weekend for the Kroger 250 at Martinsville Speedway with WINFUEL signed on as the primary sponsor of the #15 Chevrolet Silverado for this race

Cedar Knolls, NJ (PRWEB) April 10, 2005 -- Shane Hmiel and Billy Ballew Motorsports will team up once again this weekend for the Kroger 250 at Martinsville Speedway with WINFUEL signed on as the primary sponsor of the #15 Chevrolet Silverado for this race.

Hmiel will take advantage of his off weekend in the NASCAR Busch Series to pilot the #15 WINFUEL Chevy in this SaturdayÂ□s truck race. Â□I really enjoy racing in the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series so when Billy asked me to get behind the wheel with WINFUEL signed on as primary sponsor there was no question I would race. Billy Ballew Motorsports and WINFUEL is just a winning combination,Â□ said Hmiel.

Hmiel will be making his third appearance at Martinsville in the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series. Although Martinsville has not been good to him in the past Shane is optimistic about the upcoming race Â□I am excited to come back to Martinsville, the guys back at Billy Ballew Motorsports have put together a competitive truck for this mile and a half racetrack.Â□

The NBS 24/7 crew will also be on hand to capture behind the scenes footage of this weekendÂ□s event. The reality based TV show airs on Speed Channel Monday 9:30PM eastern, with re-airings on Tuesday 12:30 AM and 6:30 PM, as well as Wednesday 8:30AM.

Watch all the action of the Kroger 250 this weekend at Martinsville as Shane Hmiel attempts to bring home a second win for Billy Ballew Motorsports in the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series. Race coverage starts live Saturday at 1:00 PM on Speed Channel.
