LOS ANGELES (PRWEB) January 07, 2019 -- Compare-autoinsurance.org has released a new blog post that explains how policyholders can get cheaper car insurance with the help of insurance agents.

First of all, drivers will have to choose between working with a captive agent or a broker. Each option has pros and cons:

A captive agent represents a single insurance company and is familiar with all the practices, discounts and benefits that the company has to offer. Working with a knowledgeable person will help clients tailor a suitable coverage plan. He can update his clients with all available discounts and requirements. Establishing a professional relationship with the agent will ensure a better representation during claim handling. Professional agents will help you compare prices and lower the costs. It is recommended to work with captive agents if a person wants to purchase coverage for a long-term from a specific company.

Brokers, or independent agents. They work for multiple companies and have a better view of the entire local insurance market. When asked, they provide quotes for all companies represented, giving the customer multiple options. Working with a broker is recommended for drivers with a special, high-risk, status. They may have access to non-standard carriers and help drivers find coverage. Some agents will help their favorite customers get access first to more affordable deals. Working with a high number of companies means that they are able to update the clients with the latest market trends. They will also notify the client when it is time to ask for no-claim discounts or loyalty discounts.
