

Glendale Nissan Compares the Latest Nissan Rogue Against Multiple Competitors

Nissan dealership provides comparison research pages to assist customers

GLENDALE HEIGHTS, Ill. (PRWEB) August 18, 2021 -- The 2021 Nissan Rogue is a staple SUV among the Nissan crossover lineup, and to show its value to potential customers, Glendale Nissan has put together a series of informative and in-depth comparisons that prove the worth of the Rogue. The latest comparisons added to the Glendale Nissan research pages include the 2021 Rogue versus the 2021 Hyundai Santa Fe, 2021 Honda HR-V, 2021 Kia Sportage and even the 2022 Kia Seltos.

In all the recent 2021 Rogue comparisons, Glendale Nissan found that the Rogue had a considerable edge against its competitors. Whether it was the extra horsepower and cargo capacity that the Rogue had over the HR-V and Seltos or the standard keyless ignition and parking assistance that the Rogue had over the Santa Fe and the Sportage. These few advantages are just the beginning of the highlights that these comparisons cover.

These latest comparisons just add to the extended roster of Rogue comparisons on the Glendale Nissan website. Past comparisons include the Rogue versus the 2021 Hyundai Tucson, 2021 Honda CR-V, 2021 Toyota RAV4 and the 2021 Mazda CX-5. The dealership has also put together an abundance of other research pages for other models in the Nissan lineup.

Those interested in learning more about the latest Nissan Rogue or other new Nissan models are encouraged to check out the research pages contained on the Glendale Nissan website at www.glendalenissan.com. The dealership can also be reached by phone at 630-469-6100. Glendale Nissan is located at 484 East North Avenue in Glendale Heights, IL.
