

Redesigned 2019 Toyota RAV4 Arrives at Downeast Toyota in Bangor Area

Next-generation 2019 Toyota RAV4 more powerful, more attractive and more advanced

BREWER, Maine (PRWEB) January 11, 2019 -- Families across the country have come to love compact crossovers for their family-friendly versatility and the Toyota RAV4 is a pioneer in the segment. With the debut of the redesigned 2019 Toyota RAV4, the Toyota-brand compact crossover is more powerful, more attractive, more efficient, more athletic and more advanced than its predecessor – a combination that has many car shoppers chomping at the bit to get behind the wheel. Downeast Toyota, a dealership located in Brewer, is excited to announce the addition of the next-generation 2019 Toyota RAV4 to the dealership inventory.

Underpinned by Toyota New Global Architecture, the 2019 Toyota RAV4 is longer, wider and rides higher than the previous entry – factors that lend themselves to a more spacious, comfortable and versatile cabin. An athletic style features a bold grille design, a lower beltline, 17-inch alloy wheels, an athletic stance and LED headlights. Inside, the Toyota RAV4 makes room for five passengers, 37.6 cubic feet of cargo and will feature Toyota Entune™ 3.0 and Toyota Safety Sense™ 2.0. Toyota RAV4 editions are available in five trim levels – LE, XLE, XLE Premium, Adventure and Limited – that feature a base Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price of $25,500.

Under the hood, the redesigned Toyota RAV4 plays host to a 2.5-liter, Dynamic Force, four-cylinder gas engine that will manufacture 203 horsepower and 184 pound-feet of torque. Married to an eight-speed Direct Shift automatic transmission, front-wheel drive Toyota RAV4 variants will earn 26 mpg in the city and 35 mpg on the highway. With the addition of Dynamic Torque Vectoring AWD with Rear Driveline Disconnect, Toyota RAV4 models will achieve 25 mpg in the city and 33 mpg on the highway. Fuel-efficient Toyota RAV4 Hybrid variants will be available later in the year and are expected to make 41 mpg in the city and 37 mpg on the highway.
