Subject: Safety Recall – A0J Dealer Ordering Criteria – Revision 1.1

Certain 2005 through 2008 Toyota Corolla and Corolla Matrix Vehicles Equipped with 1ZZ-FE

Electronic Control Module (ECM)

Due to limited inventory of specific ECM part numbers with limited UIO, effective immediately NAPO Special Activity is requesting dealerships provide the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) and Repair Order (RO) Number for part numbers illustrated in Chart (1). Please do not stock these parts in your inventory unless you have a specific customer appointment because UIO is very limited. The VIN Number and RO Number must be submitted to the facing PDC Customer Support Leader for order release.

Chart (1) Phase I 2005 - 2007 Corolla and Corolla Matrix

Safety Recall Kit Part Number	UIO	Part Description	Order Qty	Order Frequency	Special Request Quantity	Special Request Frequency	Maximum Weekly Allocation

Ordering Instructions Summary (for your reference):

- 1. Dealer order quantities that exceed the above dealer ordering criteria will be canceled daily.
- 2. Dealer orders that are submitted in excess of the daily allocation will be canceled daily.
- 3. Dealers requiring additional inventory will need to contact their Facing PDC Customer Support Leader and request a Special Request for additional inventory.
- 4. Additional inventory will be limited to the criteria listed above.
- Orders for approved additional requests submitted by Facing PDC Customer Support Leaders will be placed by the Special Activity Team. The Special Activity Team will provide the order reference to the Facing PDC Customer Support Leader on the Special Request form once the order has been released.
- Dealers should place their orders the night before they place their regular daily order, this will allow the Special Activity Team time to review and release the order before the PDC processes their daily shipment.

If you have any questions or specific dealer allocation issues, please feel free to contact your PDC Customer Support Leader.

Thank you,
